Study sheet

Eklavya's Morning Brief · Saturday, 14 November 2026 · AI-assisted notes: verify before citing

Topics covered today

Property & land (4) · Criminal procedure (BNSS) (4) · Civil procedure (CPC) (3) · Constitutional law (2) · Tort, consumer & motor (2) · Family & succession (1) · Judiciary & profession (1) · Criminal law (BNS) (1) · Environment (1) · Service & administrative (1)

Recall quiz

1. In Bigan Shah v. State of Bihar, what did the Patna High Court hold regarding a Permanent Lok Adalat’s power in land disputes?

2. What direction did the Telangana High Court give in Moinuddin Khan v. Narayan Reddy IAS concerning the DG Police?

3. How did the Gauhati High Court describe the 2019 application in NOC Foundation v. State of Assam?

4. What principle did the Gauhati High Court state in Temjenchiba Longkumer & 37 Ors. v. Yaongyimsen Riongsanger Putu Menden & 6 Ors about traditional village institutions?

5. According to the Tripura High Court, what was the effect of the jail authority’s order to keep a dog in the jail premises?

Answers

1. It has no jurisdiction to record a compromise in a land dispute under Sections 22-A and 22-B(1) of the Legal Services Authorities Act.
2. The DG Police must ensure the personal appearance of the Commissioner, HYDRAA, before the court on the next date.
3. It was a fresh consent application, not an extension of the expired provisional consent.
4. They cannot invoke customary law to ostracise individuals or restrict their movement and identity.
5. The order made the jail warden prima facie liable for negligence leading to the prisoner’s suicide.

Maxim of the day

Ex turpi causa non oritur actio: No action arises from an immoral or illegal cause.

Article of the day

Article 300A: No person to be deprived of property except by authority of law.

Legal terms, English and Hindi

review
writ limitation
ex parte compensation

Flashcards from today

Bigan Shah v. State of Bihar through the District Collector General

Moinuddin Khan v. Narayan Reddy IAS Property & land · Judiciary & profession

NOC Foundation v. State of Assam & Others Criminal procedure (BNSS) · Civil procedure (CPC) · Environment

Temjenchiba Longkumer & 37 Ors. v. Yaongyimsen Riongsanger Putu Menden & 6 Ors Criminal procedure (BNSS) · Constitutional law

Traditional village institutions cannot invoke customary laws to socially ostracise individuals and their families or impose restrictions affecting their movement and identity in violation of…

State of MP v. Santosh Dubey Service & administrative

Not every act of bravery entitles a police constable to out-of-turn promotion under Rule 56(3) of MP Vishesh Sashastra Bal Niyam [Special Armed Force Act]…

J&K&L High Court Directs Police To Supply Material Behind 'Militant' Remark Against Complainant In Police Report Property & land

The petitioner must first be supplied the relevant material so that he could examine it and thereafter avail an appropriate remedy under law