Study sheet

Eklavya's Morning Brief · Friday, 13 November 2026 · AI-assisted notes: verify before citing

Topics covered today

Criminal procedure (BNSS) (5) · Contract & commercial (3) · Tort, consumer & motor (2) · Property & land (1) · Rajasthan (1) · Constitutional law (1) · Environment (1) · Service & administrative (1)

Recall quiz

1. In State of Kerala v. Kerala Police Association, what constitutional provisions were said to limit police personnel’s right to form associations?

2. What did the Karnataka High Court decide regarding a photograph of a king cobra in a forest?

3. In Bajaj Finance Ltd. v. Union of India, what distinction did the court say was required?

4. According to Roma Laxman Tribhuwan v. State of Maharashtra, can Assistant Public Prosecutors claim the higher upper-age limit under the Maharashtra Judicial Service Rules?

5. What was the key reason the Madras High Court dismissed D Rakesh’s petition?

Answers

1. Articles 19(4) and 33.
2. It held that the photograph does not prove illegal capture of the snake.
3. A clear demarcation between legitimate borrower assistance and prohibited activities.
4. No, they cannot be treated as ministerial staff for that purpose.
5. The case was based on speculation and internet rumours without credible evidence.

Maxim of the day

Caveat emptor: Let the buyer beware.

Article of the day

Article 254: Inconsistency between Union and State laws on concurrent subjects.

Legal terms, English and Hindi

cognizable offence
non-bailable
trial appeal revision

Flashcards from today

State of Kerala v. Kerala Police Association Criminal procedure (BNSS) · Constitutional law

Peri Annapurna v. State of Telangana and another Criminal procedure (BNSS)

Sayed Rashed Sadat v. Union of India Criminal procedure (BNSS)

Md. Moajjam and Ors v. State of Bihar and Anr General

Where a statutory bar to prosecution under the Arms Act is demonstrated from the materials on record…

Roma Laxman Tribhuwan v. State of Maharashtra General

Assistant Public Prosecutors cannot be treated as ministerial staff for the purpose of claiming the higher upper-age limit prescribed under the Maharashtra Judicial Service Rules…

Bajaj Finance Ltd. v. Union of India Tort, consumer & motor

D Rakesh v. Union of India and Others Service & administrative

Advaidh M v. State of Kerala and Ors General